

Listening

Look at the animals listening to the rabbit.

Imagine sitting in the middle of the forest - things are so quiet. You sit down and listen to all the sounds. If you listen very carefully, do you think you can hear a leaf fall from a tree and hit the ground? Can you hear the wind? Make a list of all the things you can listen to as you imagine being in the forest.