

Understanding

Did you know these birds sometimes get confused for owls or even part of trees - like the bark! They have a very usual coloring. They remind us to take time to learn about things that we don't understand.

Connect the dots counting by 2's

Understanding bats - They eat a lot of insects for us!